Siam Niramit cultural show is an entertaining night out and a chance to get some insight in Thai culture and history as well as local beliefs and religion.

Housing the Ratchada Theatre, the Siam Niramit compound is a miniature of Thai village, Sawasdee Restaurant and a souvenir shop all under one roof. Held in the colossal of 2,000-seat, the show boasts an 11.95 metre proscenium - certified by Guinness World of Records as the world's highest stage.

150 Performers wearing beautiful, colorful costumes present an entertaining show with dance and music accompanied by special effects as thunder and lightning. With every act there is a scene change. The show consists of three acts: Journey back into history, Journey beyond imagination - The three worlds & Journey through joyous festivals.
